Reading

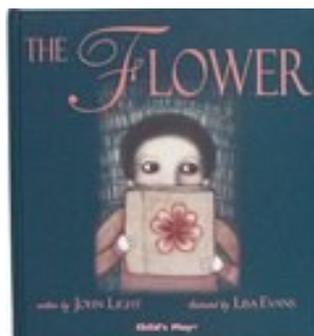

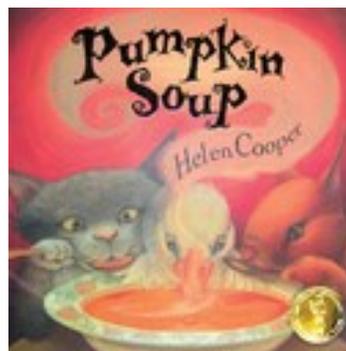

How it works:

Your child's home reading book will usually be changed on Mondays and Thursdays if finished and a comment has been written in their record book. Please encourage your child to discuss the books they bring home.

Here are examples of useful questions:

- ☺ What is your favourite part and why?
- ☺ How does that character feel? How do you know?
- ☺ What do you think will happen next?

Your child will be reading these books in class this half term:

Maths

How it works:

Maths homework, which will be sent on a Friday, will be stuck in homework books. It is due back the following Thursday.

If your child has completed their maths homework, have a go at one of these questions. You will gain 10 house points for each question completed. Please put all work in your maths homework book.

:) Using these coins how many ways can you make 30p?

:) Using addition and subtraction. How many ways can you make the number 12?

:) How many different ways can you use $>$ and $<$?

Holiday Homework

How it works:

This voluntary mini project is to be completed and handed in after half term on Monday 5th November. Research a famous person from the past. You will gain 20 house points!

You could:

Create a portrait through the use of collage, pencil, paint or other media.

Write about an important event in their life. This could be: a fact file, diary entry, letter or news report.
